

Gardening Sessions for San Joaquin County Historical Museum at Mickee Grove 2011 Workshops

Month	Gardening Session with Master Gardeners
January 8	Roses 101 Selecting, pruning and basic rose care
February 12	Basic Vegetable gardening – Spring is coming, time to start planning your summer garden
March 12	Spring Garden Chores
April 9	Plant a drought tolerant landscape for the valley
May 14:	IPM - The 10 most wanted bugs and how to deal with them
June 11:	Weed Control and prevention
July 9:	Attracting Birds and Beneficial's to your garden
August 13:	Composting and green waste reduction, building a healthy soil
September 10:	Turf grass 101; managing a healthy lawn
October 8:	Landscape trees and shrubs; selecting planting and training
November 12:	Winter garden chores

Classes will be held at the

San Joaquin County Historical Museum

11793 North Micke Grove Road, Lodi, CA 95240-9426 • (209) 331-2055

Classes begin at 10:00 am and end at 11:30 am.

There is a $5.00 parking fee into Micke Grove Regional Park.

Classes are free with regular museum admission

All participants must register a week prior to the class at (209) 331-2055

Gardening Sessions for Manteca at the Manteca Library 2011 Workshops

Month	Gardening Session with Master Gardeners
January 15:	Bare root fruit trees and berries selecting, planting and training bare root plants
February 19:	Roses 101 Selecting, pruning and basic rose care
March 19:	Basic Vegetable gardening – Spring is coming, time to start planning your summer garden
April 16:	Intro to Container Gardening
May 21:	IPM - The 10 most wanted bugs and how to deal with them
June 18:	Water conservation in the home landscape
July 16:	Attracting Birds and Beneficial's to your garden
August 20:	Composting and green waste reduction, building a healthy soil
September 17:	Turf grass 101; managing a healthy lawn
October 15:	Landscape trees and shrubs; selecting planting and training
November 19:	Winter garden chores

Classes will be held at the

Manteca Library

320 West Center, Manteca, CA

Classes begin at 10:00 am and end at 11:30 am.

Classes are free.

All participants must register 1 week in advance by calling
(209) 953-6100

